Dear Brother Goodban:

Praise the Lord for the salvation of souls! Several weeks ago, during the Jr. Church hour, Ginger had the privilege of leading two young people to Christ. And then, last week, during our Family Camp, a young man—the nephew of a church member—trusted in Christ as his Saviour. Please pray with us that these young people might grow strong in the Lord and be a good testimony for Him.

While we certainly rejoice in the salvation of these, there are still so many others who need to acknowledge their sinful condition and humbly call on the name of the Lord for His gracious gift of salvation. For example, there is Joyce's husband, Boon Tong; Lei Ling's husband, Chen Kuen; and Melwin's wife, Ngook Wah. Each of these have heard the Gospel over and over—yet, because they are all “good people”, they have been blinded to their need of a Saviour. Please pray with us for their salvation.

Thank you so much for your investment of prayers in our ministry during the months of October and November. It is our prayer that your investment will result in much spiritual fruit. Also, it is our sincere desire that the Lord will bless you and yours with a Merry Christmas and fruitful New Year!

We shall remain ...

Yours for souls,

Ray & Ginger
